

Renewing Territories to support the multi-transition and development of the Third Millennium

DECEMBER 3, 11.30am - 01.00pm

Italian pavilion, based in the 'Blue Zone' of Expo City Dubai

The energy, ecological and digital transition (multi-transition) needs to be accompanied by a more careful management of natural resources. Italy proposes guidelines, strategies and modus operandi to make our society competitive and more sustainable and supportive.

PROGRAM

Modera Francesco Tabacchino

Journalist and Press Office of the National Council of Geologists

11.30 - 11.40

Introduction

Silvia Paparella

Managing Director Ferrara Expo and General Manager RemTech Environmental Technology Hub

Francesco Corvaro

Special Envoy for climate change of the Italian Government

Speakers

11.40 - 11.50

Understanding the territories to plan and initiate the multi-transition: the geosciences to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals of 2030

Francesco Violo

President of the National Council of Geologists

David Govoni

President of the European Federation of Geologists

11.45 - 11.53

Planning and rethinking the built environment, present and future, in a sustainable way

Fabrizio Capaccioli

President of the Green Building Council Italy

11.53 - 12.01

Sustainable intermodal logistics as a vehicle for multi-transition

Marcello Di Caterina

Vice President of the Sustainable Intermodal Logistics Association ALIS

12.01 - 12.09

Designing environmental interventions to restore compromised areas, redevelop and regenerate for the future

Francesco Ventura

Member of the Directors Board of the Association of Engineering, Architecture and Technical-Economic Consulting Organizations OICE

12.09 - 12.17

Massimo Gargano

The protection of the soil against phenomena related to hydrogeological instability, floods, droughts
Director of ANBI - National Association for Land Reclamation and Irrigation (ANBI)
ONLINE CONNECTED

12.17 - 12.25

Water management as a primary element for Planet Earth

Filippo Soccodato

World Water Forum 2027

12.25 - 12.33

The challenge of the Italian environmental industry to combat climate change

Stefano Sassone

Technical Director of Confindustria Cisambiente

12.33 - 12.41

Local Energy Agencies as a Vehicle Against Climate Impacts

Benedetta Brighenti

General Director of the National Network of Local Energy Agencies Renael ONLINE CONNECTED

12.41 - 12.50

Development proposals for a more competitive, sustainable and supportive society

Michele Gagliardi Pivetti

General Secretariat of the Card. Blessed G. Dusmet Foundation

12.50 - 13.00 Conclusions

Ten. Col. CC Nino Tarantino

Law Government Sub Commissioner and Member of the IMPEL European Network for the Implementation and Enforcement of Environmental Law

ORGANIZING SUPPORT

Domenico Angelone

Secretariat of the National Council of Geologists

Roberto Mandelli

Asacert Group, Green Building Council Italia

